ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

Plaintiff accepts a certified letter signed by Jessica Day on 9/7/2017 asking when she would like to meet for the Rule 26 (F) meeting. (SEE EXHIBIT A AND B)

Plaintiff responds to the Defendant via text message 9/13/2017 and we arrange to conduct the Rule 26 (f) meeting on 9/19/2017.

I was asked by the Plaintiff my Disclosures and told her my Witnesses and documents which I shared.

The Plaintiff was very smart alec' and told me to look at her discovery sent in the past. I asked if she had any new discovery and she did not answer.

I asked the Plaintiff for her witness list. She replied she had 20 witnesses. I asked for their names and she replied I have had two years too look at her discovery.

The Plaintiff asked me to slowly say each word so she could right down what I was saying word for word; but would not supply the same curtesy to the Defendant.

Plaintiff said there will be no Dispute Resolution.

I reminded the Plaintiff that we were cousins. She got irate and said we are not cousins because cousins should not interfere in her and her mother's family business. I told her that her over 80 year old mother had been abused by her and cried out for help. The Plaintiff kept replying over and over again, "prove it"

I told her we will not file our meeting reports together and ended the call.

The Defedant that the Plaintiff should allow the defendant's bankruptcy (which could be discharged) to be completed before filling an Adversary Complaint.
